NB. Francion Hughes's house is empty, do not leave the keys there.

Questionnaires. Many thanks to those who returned them. Approx. 16% of members replied.

1995 Journal. Reports of meets and other articles by the end of November please.

Bob Graham Round. Three members of the Bethesda Mountaineering Club have asked for our assistance with their 1996 attempt. More details later.

Meets. Please check your meets card for forthcoming events.

Three National Peaks. All the juniors were successful - well done. (I hope someone will write a report for the journal).

Working Weekend at Dunmail 9/10 December. Now changed to Bishop's Scale. All welcome to attend.

Dogs. Dog owners are reminded that their dogs must not be allowed inside the huts or to wander around the car parks. They must also be walked off the premises.

Duty Wardens for Bishop's Scale. A notice inviting volunteers to assist with the smooth running of the hut is on the notice board. We urgently need members to share some of the responsibility of hut maintenance, cleanliness, etc. Remember, the huts belong to all of us.

Beckstones. Hut closed 2nd - 9th September. NT Acorn group in.

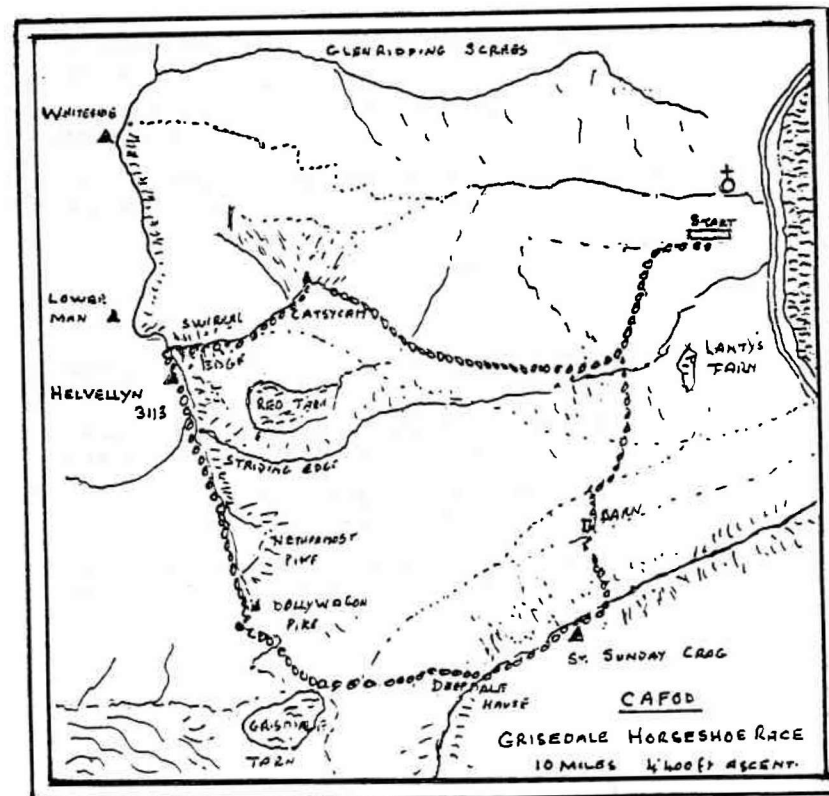

Birth Congratulations. July 1995 born to Christine Benjamin and Jeremy Young in Brisbane, Australia. Jessica Helen Young - 7lb 12 oz. Mother, father and daughter all delighted.

R.I.P. David Cox of Burnley and Fred Littlefair of Preston. Both joined the ARCC in 1994. Also, Dr. Pat Hurley of Tyne and Wear, a member for over 30 years. Pat climbed in Britain and the Alps and was doctor on an expedition to the Hindu Kush in the sixties. He was a very active walker up to his sudden illness in June this year. He died on 21st July aged 68. Our thoughts and prayers are with the families of David, Fred and Pat.

Derek W. Price. August 1995.
